

Special Thanks...

To our amazing staff for pulling this all together

To the GSR for making us feel welcome.

To AMS, because we wouldn't be here without you.

To our awesome guests for giving us the time of day.

To our artists who have made our webpage and con book not suck so much.

To our vendors, who gave us a chance in spite of small attendance estimates.

To our volunteers who have helped, and are helping us so much.

To every company that allowed us to set a stack of fliers on their counter.

To every convention that tolerated our rather loud antics to advertise our con.

To all the anime conventions that inspired us to do it in our home town.

To the anime companies that gave us screening permissions on short notice.

To each and every person who purchased a badge for the first-year, no-name convention that is SNAFU Con.

To anyone we may have missed in this note. We still love you.

Thanks to you, we're doing this again next year!

(You're afraid, right? Yeah, so are we ^^)

Letter from the Chairs

Dear Con-goers:

Hello and welcome to SNAFU Con, the first anime con in Northern Nevada. You have no idea how happy it makes us to say that. The fact that you are reading this right now is a great example of how well we have done. We would love to thank all of you individually with hugs, glomps, or pocky for making snafu con happen. For some of us, it has been a long road with more than a year of work, others have been waiting decades, and some of you found out about it last week, or yesterday.

Some of you are seasoned con-goers while some of you are attending your first convention. Some of you might not have a clue what we are doing or why we are doing it. The short answer is that we are here to have a great time and enjoy each other's company. We are here to socialize, meet up about our interests and have a great time doing it.

Now that your here, let your hair down, put your feet up, and relax. "Be excellent unto each other," (we had to pay Keanu reeves five bucks to put that in here) and have fun. It is the biggest little con in the biggest little city, and we are doing great!

Since you are still reading this, we would like to thank all our guests, volunteers, staffers, and equally awesome people who made this event happen and work. You have all been great and we hope you will continue being the people that make this con awesome year after year. Thank you once again for helping make many dreams a reality. Beware Ze Fluffy, and hug the Squidoo.

Stay frosty and keep it classy,

Nathan Sindar - Chair
Michael McCraven - Vice-chair and Beta - Vice-chair

The Warky Request Show: Our resident Chocobo and Maudlin Mormon Musician, Warky, will be taking your requests, be they vague, obscure, or just plain silly. Come with an idea--we've lost all of ours.

Whose Line is it Anime?: For the next two hours, the lunatics will be running the asylum. Please remain seated, and feel free to laugh at their obvious lack of a script and proper planning. The lack of control is solely for your amusement. Please avoid throwing rotten vegetables at our performers--they already had a heavy lunch.

Wig Panel: Our cosplayers help you learn how to style, tweak and design your wigs to nail that perfect "anime hair" look.

Women in Gaming: Ever wonder how the ladies feel at the table? Or maybe you're a gal just trying to come into her own in the gaming world? Jess Hartley tries to make this less of a mess.

Write and Wrong--How To Do It: In this panel, our resident writers help you clean up your one-liners and other prestigious potential pieces of prose with proper, peculiar, perhaps even pedagogical pedantic prim presentation. A thesaurus is not necessary for panel attendees.

Yaoi Panel: Yaoi is the genre of anime focusing on boys who likes boys with hair like girls. If you're offended by that sort of thing, don't go. If you're not, then go.

Yell It and I'll Draw It: Watch as a few of our gifted artists create wonderful drawings before your very eyes!

Toys and Utopia: At this panel, Reverend Ratspeed from the Toy Soldiers Group #777 will talk about how you can make the world a better place - with toys.

Tune In, Tune Out, Turn On: This panel talks about the wonderful world of music from a Otaku perspective. Join us on a frivolous and fascinating look at all the wonderful tunes of geekdom.

Villainy for You and Me: Is your Dark Lord losing luster? Your Bad Guy boring? Your Social Blight snoring? Then let us help you on the path of "endarkenment" through a rigorous workshop that helps you on the finer points of making your villains the threats they ought to be.

In addition to her extensive work for White Wolf Publishing, she has also worked in the gaming industry for Margaret Weis Productions on the Supernatural RPG line. Her first novel, In Northern Twilight, was nominated for Best RPG-Related Novel in Pen & Paper's 2004 Fan Awards. Jess also writes "One Geek to Another", a weekly etiquette and advice column for modern geeks, and authored "Conventions for the Aspiring Game Professional", a .pdf product designed to help those who are interested in working in the industry. She guest-hosts "Out of Character", a weekly gaming podcast that is part of the Pulp Gamer Network.

LYNN HARDY

For Lynn Hardy, writing began as a passion she could not contain and has become much more than she ever expected. As the author of Prophecy of the Flame, Lynn is here both to promote her work and her charitable ideals.

-100% of the proceeds from Prophecy of the Flame: Book One will be going to a charity, Agape assistance, that is dedicated to helping families doing without in these harsh economic times.-

ROBERT WIESE

Robert Wiese has been playing D&D since 1978 after he watched a game played in the car on the way home from a Boy Scouts meeting. He was fascinated, and delved into this strange world of dragons and magic and sourcebooks. Years later, he was hired to edit tournaments for the RPGA Network, and from there progressed to running the network after his boss was assassinated in the great Christmas purge of 1996. Times were tough, but he persevered and brought the RPGA into a shining new era. Eventually he met a girl who liked to play D&D too, and he left Renton for the warmth and casinos of Reno, Nevada. Now, he works in the Pharmacology department of UNR studying mouse foot muscles and the effects of RF emissions on same. He spends as much time as possible with his wife Rhonda, son Owen, and newborn daughter Rebecca.

Console Gaming

No proper anime convention would be complete without a proper tribute to the gamers of our community. Whether you come to pwn some n00bs, get pwned, or watch the slaughter unfold, the gaming area is the place to be for fighting, dancing, shooting and just plain wonky games. With planning, organization, and resources provided by Ken-chan and Abe from Fanime's gaming room we're sure to have a frag-fest to remember.

Tabletop Gaming

Throughout the convention, there will be several tabletop role playing games being run, for the free enjoyment of congoers, including (but not limited to) Dungeons and Dragons and World of Darkness. Anyone attending the con may sign up for any game ahead of time, or may join in a game provided there is room available.

Check out the following tournaments:

- Magic Booster Draft
- Magic Constructed Tournament
- Legend of the Five Rings Celestial Constructed Tournament
- Yu-Gi-Oh Constructed Tournament

Shadows

Last on this list, but first in all the AMS and SCIENCE staff's hearts, Shadows is the precursor to SNAFU, the event that made us feel SNAFU was possible in the first place. We hope you have as much fun at our Halloween mini-party as we've had these last few years doing it.

The Rave

So, you made it to the end of the con, and now it's time to celebrate! We're wrapping up this con with a wicked dance party! Why? Because it's AWESOME! Do you really need a good reason to go dance to some cool tunes, feel the vibes and end the convention on a groove-tastic note? What are you, Vulcan? Get out there and dance!

Hall Cosplay Contest

If you're in costume, and a staffer or other SNAFU affiliate think you did a great job, you'll get a ticket. Collect a lot and enter them to see if you got the most!

American Rock Band Contest

Think you and your friend can impress a crowd and a trio of snarky, ill-tempered judges with a plastic guitar and stage theatrics? Would you like to witness others attempt the same shamelessly? With the smash hit game Rock Band 2, twelve bands will compete tooth and axe for great prizes. The name of the game is stage presence, not score; so put on a big show and let everyone know you're a rock star!

PROGRAMMING AND EVENTS

...and general things to do

RAR!

RAR is the main stage, but not, because it's RAR. RAR is run by Fluffy, a being science shies away from like an intelligent person does from a panel van with free candy written on the side. And like said van, RAR is masquerading as something it's inherently not, that is, something that makes sense. RAR is an entertaining kind of crazy that brings you funny at the expense of SNAFU staffers shamelessly attempting to amuse you. We also have less crazy, more structured, and just as fun programming from more serious SNAFU staff and our special guest Warky.

Screening Rooms

Our video rooms will be running around the clock, bring anime to otaku just itching for their fix of Japanese entertainment. The video room is the perfect place to sit down and take a breather in between panels or other activities you're interested in.

Hentai Room (18+)

Don't deny it. Don't even think about denying it. You're just as bad as the rest of us, and you're interested. In the dark side. In the things that defy both reason and horror. The things that twist the mind. No, I'm not talking about eldritch horrors, I'm talking about the hentai room. Be warned, security does check IDs, so bring something government issued that says you're over 18 and has a picture of you on it.

Disclaimer: Please do not attempt to recreate any of feats attempted in the Hentai room. We are not responsible for any injuries, damages, or jokes at your expense by the local E.R. staff. Absolutely no minors are permitted entry. (18+)

Dark Room

I hope you're not afraid of the dark, because when the lights go down, the darkness takes hold. And that's when the real fun begins. We'll be watching the blood spill, flow, gush, and spray across the screen with your violent favorites.

Artist Alley

Want a special souvenir that's cute, crafty, or just plain gorgeous? SNAFU Con's Artist Alley is a venue for artists of all kinds to come promote themselves and sell their wares. Visit the Artist's Alley to find great fan art, gifts and crafts, and other handmade things. Drawings, post-cards, buttons, and all kinds of artistic creations will be for sale. Meet friendly artists, and commission a picture of yourself or a favorite anime character! Artists are creative and fun people. Buy unique and wonderful things from them here, in all price ranges.

Art Contests

Stop by Artist Alley to check out the art contest entries! Winners will be announced at closing ceremonies.
