LETTERS FROM THE CHAIRS

Welcome all

I'm glad you all survived the end of the world, for the umpteenth time we are here to celebrate! The goal of con is to bring everyone together, have fun, maybe learn something new, and geek out no matter your passion. So please jump right into the madness and enjoy yourselves. To you staffers, volunteers, vendors, attendees, special guests, anyone I may have forgotten, thanks for surviving, working so hard, and taking the time to come to SNAFU Con. Without all of you this event wouldn't be possible nor would it be nearly as fun. Well without further ado the year has flown by and now its time for con!

See you around.

Nathan Sindar
SNAFU Con Chairman

Hey all!

Wow, this year has been quite a thing! We've got more programming than ever before, we've added a new room, and we moved Registration out of its (tiny) box which makes registration people really happy. This year feels like the prep has gone really smoothly compared to previous years and I hope the convention itself goes just as well.

Please welcome the new additions to our staffing family who are working really hard to make things awesome. We also lost a few of our usual staffers due to scheduling conflicts or simply life stepping in and making things difficult. We miss you. Finally, congratulations to Abe who was promoted to Gaming Chair!

Our reg system has gotten a lot of improvements this year that I'm very excited about. All the scheduling was done with a brand new piece of registration. From now on all panelists can submit panels and let the system keep it in front of us. The coolest part is we now can have dynamically updating schedules! Links are posted on the site and on the printed schedule.

All in all, I'm really amazingly super excited for this year! This will be our fourth year and I'm starting to feel like we are beginning to get a handle on this whole con thing. Whether or not we are, I hope you have an amazing time because that's what we're all about - having a crazy awesome fun time. Enjoy it, and I'll see you in the hentai room. =]

SNAFU Con Vice Chair

SNAFU Con 2013's Charity:

Dear attendees,

I am once again privileged to speak to you wonderful people as a vice-chair of this convention. It has been a surprisingly busy year for me, but I've been able to do my best to continue nurturing this con, albeit with more delegation than in previous years. We've had many new additions to our staff, including a new vice-chair, and I am happy to welcome them all.

Our guests this year are quite a robust group, and I genuinely wish as our programming director that you look up the scheduled events they are doing. Between our guests, we easily have enough talent to take over the world! What's left of it anyhow.

Speaking of which, our theme this year is post-apocalypse. It's then end of the world as you know it! Have an adventure! See some things! Do some stuff! Dance as the world burns! Cackle a little. I find it therapeutic. After all, there is no sense not swimming in the crazy a little. To me, that's really what con life is. It's therapy for the spirit. For the rattled mind. A chance to hang out with all the other weird, nutty people in this lifestyle and go, "Hey, I'm kinda sane...ish." Why? I dunno. Maybe it's because you lot are my tribe. Maybe it's because the family I pick does me just as much good as the family as I was born with, in different and hopeful ways.

This will be our fourth year as a convention. I have made friends through this con, I've made connections that will never necessarily leave me. The kindness, energy, and strength of this community has kept me going through this last year, despite my own personal difficulties. For that I thank you. All of you. I hope you have a wonderful year, and a fantastic con.

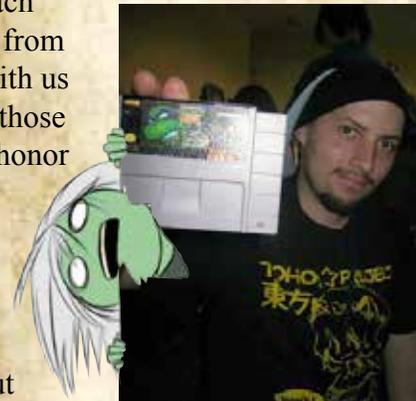

Here in a creepy hooded robe, I sit and wait, menacing over you. Hoping to see what happens next, amidst the ruins of the past, and the cheers of the future. I think that this con will be one to remember. Have a terrifying and cheerful time!

Your Lord Emperor and Vice-Chair,
Michael McCraven

Hello, everyone.

Welcome to SNAFU Con's fourth convention.

I would like to thank each and every one of you – from those who have been with us since the beginning, to those who have given us the honor of gracing us with your presence for the first time – for making this convention what it is today. To say that we'd be nothing without your support would be a massive understatement. Although the planning and compiling of this event is always a boatload of hard work for everyone involved, to be quite honest we wouldn't have it any other way. You folks make it all worth it.

I started my anime convention tenure at FanimeCon in 2009, as a staff member of the Game Room, which led to more conventions and more Game Room staff positions as the months went by – including the very first SNAFU Con back in 2010. The Game Room has become part of who I am at this point...I've become the guy with way too many old games for his own good. Being able to meet all sorts of people during those conventions has been a privilege since day one, and it will continue to astound me how amazing folks can be when they can just be themselves, loving what they love, amongst those who share that love. And the gamers? Forget about it. You folks truly live for this stuff – the level of hype and excitement you people bring to the table is downright infectious. I've learned a lot from you folks about what it means to truly enjoy a video game.

The best parts of any convention, according to a lot of people I've asked, are the friendships and camaraderie that sprout from a con's unique environment, and the memories that accompany those friendships. We hope that you all create some wonderful memories here.

Have a blast, everyone, and we'll see you in the Game Room!

SNAFU Con Gaming Chair,
Abe "Skyline" Navarro

Tanglwyst de Holloway, aka Tonya Adolfson, has been a professional costumer since 1988 and has worked in the costume shops of Southern Utah University and the Utah Shakespearean Festival. Tangl has done wigs, make up, props and movement for the stage, and turned her impressive set of skills to teaching at Society for Creative Anachronism events. Luckily, many of her skills apply very well to the re-imaginative world of Steampunk and she adores the innovation and freedom Steampunk allows.

helping them to tune their writing and realize their dreams. "The company is run by authors, for authors, and is small enough to give you individual attention. We welcome submitters and want to learn about your endeavors!"

Her third book in the series, An Open Enemy, released March 2013 and the audio books for her first two are in production and due to release Fall 2013.

TOP 12 CON POLICIES

This is a general summary of con rules for your convenience. Please see the full list of rules (<http://snafucon.com/policies.php>) or ask a staff member if you have any questions or doubts.

1. General Conduct: This is an all-ages family event. Dress and behave appropriately, obey all laws, be aware of your surroundings, and listen to requests by staff or you may be asked to leave.
2. Dress Code: Your badge must be visible at all times. If you choose to wear a mask, remove it when you leave the con area. You must wear shoes and clothes that sufficiently cover you. No signs that advertise goods or services (will x for y) or any inappropriate messages. "Free Hugs" is always ok!
3. Hygiene: Bathe. Wear deodorant.
4. Heckling: Do not heckle. Exceptions are in the Hentai room, or when you are explicitly told heckling is okay.
5. Children: We recommend all children under 18 attend the convention with a chaperone. We require that all children under the age of 13 have a chaperone (18+) with them at all times.
6. Photography: By attending SNAFU con, your picture may be taken at some point. Always ask before taking anyone's pictures. Move out of walkways and doorways before stopping to take or pose for pictures. Respect any posted signs that tell you not to take photography in certain areas or times during the convention. Do NOT take pictures or record video in the video screening rooms. Do NOT take pictures of art in the artist alley.
7. Weapons: All weapons must be peace bonded. No weapons that aren't obviously fake on inspection. A whip or flogger counts as a weapon and must be peace bonded. No projectile weapons (water guns, airsoft, dart guns) unless they are rendered inoperable (removing the bullets is not enough!) in a way that is not easily removed, will not fall off, and is not removed during con. No flare guns. Purchased weapons must be immediately peacebonded or (if they cannot be peacebonded) remain boxed and removed from the con floor.
8. Alcohol: There is NO drinking inside this event. If you are over 21, you are welcome to drink and gamble on the casino floor. If you drink, don't drive! Authorities will be notified and your badge will be confiscated without refund in the event of a minor caught intoxicated or in the possession of alcohol, public intoxication, or any illegal alcohol or drug use, sales or possession. Don't do it.
9. Sleeping: Sleeping in the convention area is allowed at your own risk. People may mess with you, and we are not responsible for your belongings. Do not sleep in hallways or walkways.
10. Casino: Individuals under 21 are not allowed in the casino area.
11. Hotel: Room parties are allowed, but you are responsible for your room and everyone and everything in it, including any damages, cleanup, rules of the hotel, and obeying the law. Loud and disruptive parties may get your badges confiscated, hotel staff involved, or authorities called.
12. Staff: Staff members have the final say, on a case by case basis, regardless of any written rules. If you think any staff, or security member is acting inappropriately or unfairly, (or you just want to complain) please report it to Nathan or Beta. You may not know who we are, but grab a staffer and ask for us by name. You may also email Beta (those of you with your smart phones: beta@snafucon.com) and expect a response within a reasonable amount of time. Please understand that Nathan and Beta are busy and may not be available right away. After appealing to Nathan/Beta, any determination made is final. If you need to speak with someone about a volunteer acting inappropriately, ask for Blanca. Her determination is also final.

The Hellknight's Feast Character levels 5-9 War between demons and the civilized peoples of the Inner Sea region has broken out in the Worldwound far to the north of Absalom, but despite the regional implications of an Abyssal victory, many nations are ambivalent toward the cause. ### The Night March of Kalkamedes

Character levels 1-5 A veteran Pathfinder exploring the Fenwall Mountains of Varisia has begun sleepwalking, traveling through the dead of night in the same direction each time. ### The Wardstone Patrol

Character levels 3-7 All-out war has erupted on the long-contested border between the crusader nation of Mendev and the demon-infested Worldwound. Whether this is your first year or your fourth year, we hope you have enjoyed our con. It takes hard work and dedication from staff and volunteers to make this event great. We continue to strive to make this convention better each year, but we can not do this without your help. Email hr@snafucon.com and tell us you want to be staff! Not only will you contribute to SNAFU Con's awesomeness, you will also get a free badge!

Now I know what you are saying, "Staff? That sounds like a lot of hard work." Well it is, but ask any staff member and they will tell you it is worth the effort. You don't have to put in the long hours that the staff do to be able to help out our con. Sign up as a volunteer by emailing hr@snafucon.com and letting us know! Volunteers only help out during con. For just four hours a day, you can earn your registration fee back. You still get to see the panels, watch the anime, and participate in the tournaments.

With your help, we will continue grow into a bigger and better con. Sign up now!

See you next year for SNAFU Con 2014!
