Help Us Crack The Case!

Every convention leaves behind clues. The unforgettable moments, the suspicious mishaps, the things that worked perfectly, the things that went terribly, terribly wrong... All of it needs further investigation!

That's where you come in. Tell us what you loved and what could have gone better. No detail is too small for our investigation.

We want the whole story: the good, the bad, and the mildly incriminating. Your testimony helps us improve.

Submit your statement:

feedback@snafucon.com

In 2026, SNAFU Con does

CRIME!

The case is officially open! Somewhere between the vendor hall and the panel rooms, a caper is about to unfold, and we need every hand we can get.

Round up your crew for a weekend of daring cosplay heists, artist alleys packed with priceless finds, and panels where the plot always thickens. Chase down clues at your favorite fandoms, stake out the gaming room, and shake hands with the ringleaders who keep the anime world running.

Get ready for phantom thieves in top hats, detectives with too much backstory, courtroom showdowns, shadowy syndicates, gentleman burglars, and one very suspicious cat. Whether you're the mastermind, the getaway driver, the plucky sidekick, or the detective three steps behind, we've got a role with your name on it.

So pull your hood up, tighten your gloves, and meet us at the scene... we promise if nothing else, you'll score a really good time.

*SNAFU Con does not condone actual crime. Only good-natured fake crime.

Huge payout for both Crooks and Detectives!

Welcome to SNAFU Con 2026! Put on your burglar mask and prepare to experience the heist of a lifetime at SNAFU Con. Crooks, thieves, and detectives alike will benefit from the SNAFU Con quest system! Remember: no real stealing allowed!

How to Play!

1. Find the SNAFU bounty board! You can find the active quests and prizes here.
2. Quests will vary from hunting down wanted criminals to stealing some stashed loot. If you like, you can even join our prison gang as a temporary volunteer! This earns the most tickets. Completion of a quest earns based on task difficulty.
3. The fastest way to catch more tickets is volunteering, contributing to SNAFU Con 2026 and its mission to bring anime fun to new depths.
4. Once you've accumulated enough SNAFU Cash, see the mob boss or lead investigator. There you'll find something better than loot: anime prizes waiting to be discovered!

Rules!

1. Tasks may take you to all areas of the con. Please be respectful of con-goers not currently on a heist or investigation.
2. Some quests are repeatable, but some missions may be a one-time-only deal.
3. Take care of your SNAFU Cash. SNAFU Con is not responsible for any lost SNAFU Cash.
4. Loot is first-come, first-served. But don't despair! New prizes will be added to the black market every day to give everyone a chance to earn something great!
5. Remember that there is no running in the con areas or the hallways. Safety is the first rule of thieves and detectives alike!
6. Will you crack some cold cases, or stump some investigators yourself? It's up to you, but most importantly, have fun!

The Great Basin Buccaneers

The Great Basin Buccaneers are a group of reenactors local to the Reno area who like to portray Pirates in all their glory. They embrace all phases of piracy: Historical, Fantasy, Steampunk, and so on. We specialize in tabletop period games and shenanigans! We be tellers of tall tales and have been known to recruit from the general population to help spread the good word of the Black Flag! Kids, ask our Captain to tell you the tale of the Turtle Tears!

Letters from the Chairs

Did we make it?

Were you followed?

You were? Oh good. This convention is open for everyone. Well, now that you're here, go meet your friends. Maybe they're friends you brought, maybe they're friends you'll make this weekend, but either way: that's what this is really about.

Well, and Crime*! I haven't committed any, of course, but I've been hearing all about yours. Don't worry about who told me, I think it counts as hearsay anyway.

Staff have put a ton of effort into planning this year, and even more into making it actually happen. It's continuing, right now, as I write. They're probably still working while you read this note. I really can't thank them enough for their incredible efforts, so instead I'll ask you all to go check out what they've been up to. There are a ton of new panels and old favorites, go check them out. Then the artists, the vendors, the games...it's really the perfect con. Convention. I mean convention.

~Tim

*Don't commit actual crime. Our insurance won't cover it.

Hello and Welcome con-goers!

Another year has raced by us and here we are again, ready for a weekend of anime, artwork, games, and (most importantly) community!

I stumbled across SNAFU Con wholly by accident way back in 2012 and I have been working in the Tech department ever since. I was graciously given the opportunity to co-chair with Tim and it has been a whirlwind of a year. Like every year, time passed much faster than we realized and we've been sprinting to finish over the last two months! That's ok though, because it's always worth it to see all of the attendees have an opportunity to connect with other people over the nerdy things we have in common. Whether it's cosplay, anime, games, or art, it brings me great joy to see connections happening in real time.

This year, our staff have really pulled together to fill gaps and make things happen. I appreciate everyone on staff more than I could ever really express. I've seen a lot of people step up and work through personal struggles in their everyday life to give some of their precious free time to SNAFU Con and it's been an incredible and heartwarming thing to experience. Thank you so much to everyone who joined staff or takes time to volunteer over the weekend, we couldn't do it without you!

Finally, thank YOU so much for attending. This convention is nothing without the community and it means everything that you would take time to join us in indulging in our hobbies and special interests. I hope you find something that you enjoy here and make some memories to look back fondly on in the future. I've made some of the best friendships I have here and I hope you can do the same.

So, with that said, welcome to SNAFU Con 2026! Let's get our (fun, good natured, and not actually illegal) CRIME! on!

-Amber

Our 2026 charity is

The Special Needs COMMUNITY of Northern Nevada is a non-profit organization based in the Reno/Tahoe area dedicated to improving the lives and experiences of those with special needs. Our goal is to improve the day-to-day lives of those with special needs through social activities that allow members to enjoy them regardless of what makes them special. These include sensory hours at local businesses where the lights and sounds are turned down to allow those with any aversion to enjoy the activities and in a less crowded atmosphere. These events occur every month, with larger events around the holidays helping families get the most out of events many often take for granted.

Guests of Honor

Kenny Loui

A jack-of-all-trades, Dr. Kenny Loui wears multiple hats in his professional career: He's a criminology professor, award-winning graphic novelist, scriptwriter, and voice actor. A nominee for the One Voice Awards' Voiceover Newcomer of the Year in 2025, Kenny ventured into VO to fulfill his long-deferred childhood dream of "becoming a toon."

Since then, Kenny has lent his voice to leading and supporting roles in various productions including the South Korean animated series Supertrons. Kenny also serves as Supertrons' script adaptation writer, bringing his expertise in penning smart, engaging and witty dialogue to the English version of the series.

When not moonlighting as a talking dinosaur or other quirky cartoon character, Kenny is an Associate Professor of Criminal Justice at Loras College and often incorporates the visual and performing arts and pop culture elements into his classes, including anime, manga, and K-pop. One of his most popular classes at Loras is Crime, Justice & Pop Culture Diplomacy, a class that blends comparative criminology, international relations, and Korean and Japanese pop culture.

Steve "Warky" Nunez

Steve "Warky" Nunez is an award-winning jack-of-all-trades in the entertainment industry.

Hailing from New York, he started out narrating audio books for the blind and from there he branched out into all facets of media. He is widely known as the CEO of the award winning studio Ascendent Animation, and for his work on The Yaoi Xmas Carols, Sonic The Hedgehog, Wendy Pini's Masque of the Red Death: A Musical Thriller, Card-en-Ciel, Venom: Let There Be Carnage, Kakushite! Makina-san!!, Ant-Man, Yandere Simulator, Aphmau, Henkei Shoujo, Gunvolt Chronicles: Luminous Avenger Ix-2, Camp Buddy, Fire in His Fingertips, Everything for Demon King Evelogia, Unexpectedly Naughty Fukami, and Anima: Gates of Memories.

Warky looks forward to what the future has in store for him and hopes there will be singing and dancing along the way!

Christopher Escalante

Christopher Escalante is a voice actor & musician. Chris is so excited to be coming back for another year at SNAFU Con!

He has voiced many roles in anime produced by Funimation and Crunchyroll such as Kinji Ninomiya in The Dungeon of Black Company, Ken Sonozaki in Higurashi: When They Cry - GOU, Kozo Yukawa in Isekai Onsen Paradise, as well as Banished from the Hero's Party, A Couple of Cuckoos, The Prince of Tennis, Henkei Shoujo, Lovely Complex, Ishida & Asakura, and video game roles such as Batman in DC: Battle Arena, Rattrap in Transformers: Tactical Arena, The Nameless in Anima: Gate of Memories, Erik in the Seduce Me otome series, and is also the voice of Ein, the gold-loving prankster in Aphmau, the YouTube series with over 25 million subscribers and over 10 million views per day.

Kay Kennedy

When Kay Kennedy enters the recording booth, she brings a decade of experience in creative collaboration with her. She's a three time Telly Award winning voice actor known for anime dubs including Nukitashi and Chuhai Lips, and the live action dub of the Pusher film trilogy. She's the voice of both the Tiefling and Elf in Dungeons & Dragons Reel Quest, voiced big brand commercial content, and narrated 11 steamy romance novels. As a Reno local, she's passionate about making professional voice acting accessible to people everywhere. When she's not recording, she's reading murder mysteries and snuggling with her cat, Chibi.

Shane Tay

Shane Tay is a multi-award winning actor from Utah, currently working at Ascendent Animation. Though a lifelong fan of anime, he studied for a career in the non-acting side of traditional theatre. Much to his surprise, his dream came true when he was picked up by Ascendent Animation. Shane never believed he would make it from fan to guest, but never giving up his whimsy paid off.

He's worked on shows and movies including Kakushite! Makina-san!!, Show Time! (1 & 2), Henkei Shoujo, Masque of the Red Death, XL BOSS, Ishida and Asakura, and Even in Dreams.

When he's not working, Shane enjoys building plastic models, laughing, and learning things he didn't know he didn't know. If you hear laughter that you can't locate, it's probably coming from him on the other side of the convention!

Astro

Astro is a 60+ award-winning, master-level competitive cosplayer from central California! They specialize in sewing and needlework but dabble in a lot of different techniques, mediums, and materials. They've competed and judged all over the United States. They've been cosplaying for eight years and have made well over 30 unique costumes. Astro is also a chronically ill/disabled and queer cosplayer who wants to carve out a space for everyone within the cosplay community.

Come meet Astro and talk shop! They're always willing to give advice on cosplay, build books, and more.

GumiV4

Maggie, better known as GumiV4 Cosplay, is a 24-year-old self-taught seamstress, prop maker, wig stylist, and cosplayer of over a decade! GumiV4 has won numerous awards for her craftsmanship both locally in Nevada and out of state, and was a chosen competitor for the 2025 Cosplay Central Crown Championships. With dozens of intricate, head-to-toe handmade costumes under her belt, Maggie loves sharing her own knowledge via online tutorials and in-person panels to make cosplay less intimidating and more accessible for everyone!

Steven Yu

Steven Yu is a Taiwanese-American artist and storyteller whose work collides the visual language of the Far East with the spirit of the Wild West. Growing up in a diverse household surrounded by overlapping languages, traditions, and visual cultures, he developed a fascination with stories that blur the boundaries between cultures, eras, and genres.

That collision of influences became the foundation of his artistic voice—and the driving force behind JOAN, his ongoing anachronistic kung fu, Western reimagining of Joan of Arc. Blending martial arts, medieval fantasy, Westerns, and pulp action, JOAN is a story born from Yu's fascination with worlds that shouldn't fit together—but somehow do.

Jade Griffin

Jade Griffin is a character-driven creative firestorm. Though her usual genre is sci-fi and fantasy, discovering Call of Cthulhu lit her imagination down a darker path of Lovecraftian horror and she published and ran several Call of Cthulhu TTRPG adventures. The NPCs didn't stop talking when the players left the table, so now she's chronicling their adventures, starting with The Journals Of Lacy Anderson Moore: Monster Hunter of the 1800s. Everything is connected, so look for nods and Easter eggs in all of her publications. Pick up the first, any, or all of her Call of Cthulhu tabletop roleplaying games on DriveThruRPG.com or her NPC novels on Amazon!

Gavin Black

Gavin Black is the author of Crop Burner: The Tale of Fearn and the Deamhon and The Friend Exchange. His fantasy novel Journey Through the Forgotten earned five stars from The Wishing Shelf and was short-listed for the Ozma Award. He writes for the stage as well: his pilot adapting The Friend Exchange was a Cinequest semi-finalist, and his play The Last Turn is in development. A frequent convention guest and writing workshop instructor, he lives in Reno with his wife, two sons, and an unreasonable number of cosplay costumes.

Spencer Stoner

Celebrating his tenth anniversary as an author, Spencer has had quite the journey. Since his first appearance at SNAFU Con: he has gotten married! He also has taken up voice acting but, really, he got married!

In addition to the three prose novels and graphic novel of his Ophelia Legacy series, he has also written a modern audio drama adaptation of Dickens' A Christmas Carol called Carole's Christmas Carol! His first acting role was "Captain Fearless" in the audio production Captain Fearless and the Time-Traveling Nazis of Doom.

The "acting bug" has also inspired him to start a production company called Ohana Honua Productions, which has released short films and is developing a new audio fantasy series!

The Robot Ate My Manuscript (But It Fixed My Comma Splices)

Gavin Black

Nobody at a con full of artists wants to sit through a panel about AI, but Gavin is doing one anyway!

You'll go through a few real cases — writers whose whole careers came down to one question: did a person write this, or did a machine? You vote as you go. Guilty or innocent. Then you'll find out how good your gut actually is.

After that, Gavin will discuss where this stuff might be worth using, and where it falls on its face and always will. No lecture, no sales pitch, nobody getting scared straight. Just a few true stories, a show of hands, and an honest hour about the thing we've all been pretending isn't already here.

The Sequel Nobody Asked For: Another Year in Publishing (Now With Playwriting)

Gavin Black

I did one of these last year — me talking about trying to write and sell books, then answering whatever anybody threw at me. Enough of you showed up that they're letting me back.

So, year two. I wrote more, I sold some, I got told no more times than I'll admit to, and I learned a few things the hard way that I'll just hand to you so you don't have to. There's a new one this year too — I've started writing for the stage. A play, it turns out, is nothing like a novel, and I've got some hard-won opinions about that now. We'll get into it.

And like last time, most of the hour is yours. Ask me anything — writing, agents, self-publishing, editing, plays, the money, the part where people say no — and I'll give you the real answer, not the one that fits on a poster. Didn't make it last year? Doesn't matter. Pull up a chair.

Um... Actually

Think you know your nerdy stuff? Teams listen to confidently incorrect statements about movies, TV, games, comics, and pop culture, then race to spot the mistake and correct it.

Visual Storytelling: From Ideas to Images

Steven Yu

Great artwork isn't just about drawing well—it's about having something to say.

Anatomy, proportion, perspective, composition, and other artistic fundamentals are essential tools, but what happens when we start with the story instead?

In this workshop, students will learn how to turn their own experiences, observations, and imagination into visual narratives. We'll develop ideas ranging from personal and slice-of-life stories to fantasy and completely invented worlds, then use those ideas as the foundation for our artwork.

Students may create standalone illustrations, short comics and graphic-novel sequences, illustrated stories, or even the beginnings of a picture book.

The goal isn't simply to make a good drawing. It's to make an image that tells a story.

Perfect for high school, college-age artists, or anyone interested in illustration, comics, graphic novels, animation, concept art, or building a creative portfolio.

Closing One Chapter, Opening the Next

SNAFU Con started with a bunch of excited nerds who thought Reno needed an anime convention. Through a lot of crazy enthusiasm, hard work, and more luck than we'd care to admit, we made it happen. We moved venues, changed themes, tried things that worked and things that absolutely did not, and made a lot of memories along the way.

We had fun and ridiculous moments. We had sad moments. Angry moments, too. But no matter what, it was all ours. We did it together. We built this big crazy event together.

Thousands of people have walked through our halls, and hundreds have put a piece of themselves into making SNAFU Con happen over the years.

And as hard as it was, it was all worth it.

2026 is the final SNAFU Con. That's strange and painful to write—we thought we could go forever—but it doesn't necessarily mean the end of what we started. There are already people excited about building something new from the bones of the old, with a new name, new ideas, and new people helping shape it.

It's exciting and scary and we're looking forward to our next chapter.

For now, though, SNAFU Con 2026 is ours. One last ridiculous weekend under the name we thought was hilarious enough that we took it as our own. So enjoy it. Own it. Make memories. Sign each other's con books. Tell old stories and make some new ones. Go commit some crimes*!

Thank you for 15 conventions, 17 years, and more memories than any of us could count.

* Do I really need to say it? By now the asterisk should be obvious. No? Okay. One last time: SNAFU Con does not condone actual crime. Only good natured, fake "crime."

Whether this was your first year or your fifteenth, we hope you've enjoyed the last SNAFU Con!

SEE YOU SPACE COWBOY...
